

King-Shriver Huddle

Sargent Shriver (R), director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, huddles in Atlanta with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in a reported attempt to solve a dispute arising out of Mississippi's Poverty Program. Dr. King was an unannounced and apparently unexpected attendant at the conference, which came about after the OEO cut off funds to the Child Development Group of Mississippi. (UPI Photo)

At Norfolk Church

Dr. King Scheduled For Whirlwind Visit Sunday

NORFOLK — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., internationally known civil rights leader and president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, will make a whirlwind visit to Norfolk Sunday for the installation services for Dr. Milton A. Reid at New Calvary Baptist Church.

Dr. King is expected to arrive in Norfolk by plane at 10:29 a.m. He will be met at the airport by a motorcade from New Calvary and church headed by Dr. Reid who is state and regional director of SCLC.

A PRESS conference will be held at the church in Room 201-201A from 12:50 to 1:20. Fifteen minutes will be given to the Communications Center at Virginia State College for their own use. The first 15 minutes will be given over to the general news media.

Because of a tight schedule, Dr. King will have to leave the church at 1:25, it was announced.

Earlier Story, inside

leave immediately for the